Valuable Health Statistics-The Fat Melters-Smallpex-Drainage in the Upper Wards.

The Board of Health yesterday met at the usual nour, all the members present, except Commissioner Gross and Mayor Hall. The sanitary committee reported against giving Mr. Donohue, fat melter, in Thirty-eighth street an extension of thirty days to erect new buildings, but it was conveniently filed away so as to prevent his the near completion of the vaccination of citizens the extra assistant health inspectors be removed, which was adopted.

President Bosworth remarked that since March 35,048 persons had been vaccinated.

Superintendent Morris, in accordance with the recent act passed April 17th for draining other than by sewers, certified that a blind drain is necessary to carry off the stagnant water between Seventy-eighth and Seventy-ninth streets and Second and Fifth avenues, which is very detrimental to the health of the neighborhood. A resolution to forward the certificate to the Department of Public Works, with orders to make the necessary drainage. The building southwest corner of Fourth avenue and Nineticth street was ordered to be discontinued as a human habitation. Drs. O. A. Rille, 120 Second avenue, C. Cahili and F. C. Hilmer were ordered to be prosecuted for neglecting to report contagious diseases. Applications were made to render fresh fat by Gambie & McNeil, the Butchers' Association, Tobic & Booth, Smith Ely and others and were referred to the Sanitary Committee. The following important reports as to the condition of public health and mortuary statistics were read:—

probensible, and exhibits a total disregard of the lives of others.

Parients are not unfrequently sent by physicians in public backs both to the onice and to the hospital, thus infecting a carriage in which many persons may afterwards ride entirely unconscious of the danger they are incurring. Whenever such rehicles are under our cognizance they are most thoroughly districted before being allowed to tegrar; but we do not learn of all so used until too hate to secure them.

Such practices are entirely unnecessary, as an ambance will immediately be sent for any case to an appearance will immediately be sent for any case to an appearance will immediately be sent for any case to an appearance of the city whenever the bureau is notified, and the patient can then be transferredthe nospit all without undue exposure to the public.

The maintenance of the control of the equalty contagious, however mild in form) are concealed or allowed to be sent through the public street as before mentioned, just so long will this loating one disease persist.

The Register of Records reports but 15 deaths by smallpox arring the past week, 6 of which occurred at the smallpox arring the past week, 6 of which occurred at the smallpox arring the past week, 8 at king piace at their own dwellings.

The average daily census of the sick at hospital for the week was 4tl. Soine of these were received from Quaranline. Respectfully submitted.

mitted to the intolerable nuisances committed by some of the fat melters, have long looked to the Board of Health for relief. The sanitary authorities have time and again declared their intention to run all the fat men out of the city, when they could find a local habitation elsewhere. The recent arrest of many of them is merely the inception of the war that is to be waged upon them this summer, and to-day at the Tombs those arrested a.e to be disposed of. Ine impression among them is that it is the intention of the Health authorities to "snuff out" all the estab lishments in the city except the New York Render-the Health authorities to "snuff out" all the establishments in the city except the New York Rendering Company, which has a contract with the city to remove and render dead animais and offul, and are growing immensely rich thereby, and increase the value of its stock by two or three hundred percent ty giving them a monopoly of the business.

Cetain mysterious movements of the company constructs this idea. In the past four tanks have been found sufficient to render all the material collected in the city, but the company have just purchased the hull of the steamer Oceanica, which they are fitting up at the foot of West Thirty-eighth street with sixteen tanks. The omicials are very reticent upon the subject, but from a high official of reticent upon the subject, but from a high official of reticent upon the subject, but from a high official of reticent and the company propose to make the Oceanica a receptacie for all the office, and boil it up as they have an opporticity in the waters of the rivers and bay, and along the Jersey shore. It is behaved that so soon as their arrangements are completed all permits to render fat in the city will be discontinued, and, perforce, the butchers will be company monopoly may offer. The result must, as a matter of course, largely advance the stock of the company, and much of it can be "thrown sround loose" among officials to accomplish so destrable an event, while the resident public will be benefited by release from the vite odors that are now caused by the boiling within the city limits. The travelling public on river steamers must, however, ander from the vite boats that plough the river, giving forth their sackly and disgusting smells. It this be the programme of the Board of Health, and the circumstances seem to justify such a conciusion, its members should at once invest their small cash and seven-thirlies in fat rendering stock. They must give relief sooner or later in some manner, and the public care but hittle how it may be done, so that they abandon this vacillating po facre is at present on view at Somerville's Art Gallery, Fifth avenue and Fourteenth street, a collection of pieces of antique furniture which will be sold there by auction this evening at hall-past seven. The objects have been collected by an American gentleman travelling in Europe, and were inended to adorn his residence here. The Euroended to adorn his residence here. The European atmosphere has greater attractions for aim than a sojourn in America's free air could offer, and hence he has abandoned the idea of furnishing with anaquities a villa on the fluideon. There are tait old English clocks, in tinial bases, which have ticked away three-quarters of a century in baronial fails. Tail carved oak chairs are there, such as those on which Queen Elizabeth and her ladies sat when the handsome Earl of lede ster.

ANTIQUE FURNITURE.

A Curious Collection at the Somerville Gal-

PETED BER AT KENILWORTH. Chairs, too, of finer style, iniaid with marquetry; as old English lineald sideboard, such as are seen in pictures of life one hundred years ago; two card tables, exquisitely minid in the finest description of learquetry; a carved antique round table; one of those so-called trangular chairs with carved oak arms—as a matter of fact they are not triangular, but have a corner uncomfortably in front; some carious brackets carved in oak, with heads of cherusina and other angels standing out upon them. One of the oddest articles is a travelling trunk stated to have belonged at one time to Queen Anne of England. It is about the size, but on a different model, to laddes' trucks now-a-days. It is talk is fitted with oaken drawers and is studded over with brass nails-

SARATOGA TBUNK OF THE PERIOD.

On the top 18 a brass nail crown, with a brass nail monagram "A. R." beneath it, which stands for Anna Regima. Some brass candlesticks, of old time order, and a secretary from Canterbury, once the property of a canon or some other great gun of the Anglican Church. There are several very fine Moorish, Persian and Astrachan carpets, and besides a collection of some sixty rare oil engravings in sepia, by Eartolozzi, from pictures by Angelica, Kaufmann, Cipriani, &c.

THE SECOND AVENUE HOMICIDE.

Martin Convicted of Manslaughter in the ming up by counsel of the testimony given in the General Sessions on Tuesday, before City Judge Bedford, upon the trial of Michael Martin for killing Patrick Welsh on the 17th of March, 1870. Prisoner's counsel contended that he was justified in the act, or, if guilty of any crime, that he ought not to be convicted of a higher grade of homicide than manslaughter in the third degree, while Assistant District Attorney Suilivan argued that the killing was maticious and unjustifiable.

Judge Bed.ord then delivered his charge to the jury, which was listened to with great interest by those who crowded the court room.

VERDICT OF THE JURY.

The jury retired to deliberate upon their verdict at two o'clock, and after an absence of two hours and a half rendered a verdict of GULTY OF MANSLAUGHTER in the third degree.

Mr. Sullivan moved for judgment.

SENTENCE.

Judge Bedford, in passing sentence, said:—

The jury have found you guilty of manslaughter. The evidence demonstrates to my mind, beyond a peradventure, that you took the life of poor Patrick Welsh without the shadow of justification; and yet the statute prescribing the penalty only first a period of four years in the State Prison. A statute so inconsistent with common sense and justice should at once be repealed, and a statute passed inflicting a much heavier penalty where life has been taken. You are sentenced to the State Prison for the period of four years—the full period.

Speaking of those diseases and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states that no remedy is equal to the Extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquisited with. It is, in the strictest sense, a tonic, with this invaluable attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so sunken and yet so irritable as renders other substance of the tonic class unavailable or injurious.

See remarks of the great chemists and pill men of America.
